This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PORTRAIT CATALOGUE.

PORTRAITS IN OIL.

1. AMES, NATHANIEL. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Killingly, Conn., April 25, 1761; at the age of seventeen engaged as a soldier of the Revolution, and continued in service, part of the time under Washington, till the close of 1780, and then in privateering until the peace of 1783. Was for forty-five years a Methodist preacher. Moved to Oregon, Dane county, Wis., in 1844, where he died in 1863, over one hundred and two years of age, and the last Revolutionary soldier in the State.

2. ARNDT, JOHN P. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Easton, Pa., Nov., 1780. Went to Mackinaw in 1821, and to Green Bay, Wis., in Nov., 1824; was a member of the Territorial council in 1836-'38, and judge of Brown county. Died at Green Bay, June 10, 1861.

3. ATWOOD, DAVID. James R. Stuart, artist.

Born in Bedford, N. H., Dec. 15, 1815. Removed to Madison, Wis., in 1847. Has been engaged as editor and publisher of The Madison Express, Wisconsin Express and State Journal — the latter from 1852. Was quartermaster general under Gov. Fairchild; member of assembly, 1860; assessor of internal revenue, 1862-66; mayor of the city of Madison, 1868; on the death of B. F. Hopkins, was elected member of congress to fill unexpired term; one of the Wisconsin commissioners to the Centennial in Philadelphia, 1876.

4. BAIRD, HENRY S. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Dublin, Ireland, May 16, 1800, and was brought to America when four years of age. Studying law in Pennsylvania and Ohio, migrated first to Mackinaw, and then to Green Bay, Wis., in July, 1824. Was president of the first legislative council of the Territory of Wisconsin, 1836; subsequently attorney general, a member of the first constitutional convention, president of his village board and mayor of Green Bay, and for many years a vice president of the State Historical Society. Died April 30, 1875.

5. BAKER, CHARLES M. James R. Stuart, artist.

Born in New York city, Oct., 1804; studied awhile at Middlebury college, Vt., then engaged in teaching and finally studied law; located in the fall of 1838, in Walworth county, Wis., serving in the Territorial council, 1842–46; member of the first constitutional convention; one of the commissioners to revise and codify the laws of Wisconsin, 1848–49; served a few months as circuit judge in 1856, to fill a vacancy; and during the war as commissioner under Provost Marshal Bean, in the 1st district. Died at Geneva Lake, Feb. 5, 1872.

6. BARSTOW, WILLIAM A. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born at Plainfield, Conn., Sept. 7, 1813. After residing several years in Cleveland, Ohio, he removed to Wisconsin, in 1840, and served in what is now Waukesha county, as supervisor, county commissioner and postmaster; in 1850–51, as secretary of state; in 1854–55, as governor and during the War of Secession was colonel of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry. Died at Leavenworth, Kans., Dec. 13, 1865.

7. BLACK, JOHN.

Born near the city of Bitsch, German Lorraine, Aug. 16, 1830; migrated to the United States in 1846, and in 1857 to Milwaukee; member of the city council, railroad commissioner, member of assembly in 1871, and state senator in 1875–76.

8. BLACK HAWK. R. M. Sully, artist.

Born in 1767; died Oct. 3, 1838. The original portrait, of which this is an improved copy, was painted by Sully at Fortress Monroe, while Black Hawk was confined there in 1833.

Black Hawk was the leader of "the British band" of Sac Indians, who had long had their home at the junction of the Rock river with the Mississippi. Obliged to move to the west side of the Mississippi in 1831 in accordance with treaty stipulation, Black Hawk re-entered Illinois in the spring of 1832, thus giving rise to an Indian war in which the Sacs were driven up the Rock river and in their flight westward from Lake Koshkonong suffered disastrous defeats at Wisconsin Heights (Prairie du Sac) and the mouth of the Bad Ax river (near the present village of Victory, Vernon county). The latter engagement closed the Black Hawk war, and the leader, being now captured, was confined for a time at Jefferson Barracks and at Fortress Monroe, being finally placed for safe-keeping in the custody of Keokuk, head chief of the Foxes. For an account of the war, see Magazine of Western History for Nov. and Dec., 1886.

9. BRACKEN, CHARLES. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Pittsburg, Pa., April 6, 1797; marched in 1814, with the Pittsburg Blues, for the defense of Baltimore; removed to Kentucky

356. BOWMAN, JONATHAN. Conrad Heyd, artist.

Born at Charleston, Montgomery county, N. Y., May 16, 1828. Entered the legal profession in his native state. Settled at Delton, Sauk county, Wis., in 1851. In 1852, started the village of Newport, in company with the late Gen. Joseph Bailey, afterwards famous as builder of the Red river dam, in the War of Secession. In 1862, Mr. Bowman moved to Kilbourn City, his present residence. 1860, alternate in national republican convention; 1861, assemblyman; 1862-66, state senator; 1864, presidential elector; 1874, assemblyman, again; 1875-79, director of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway; 1867 to date (1889), president of Kilbourn City bank.

25. CLARK, GEORGE ROGERS. Copied by Edwards from Jarvis's portrait.

Born near Monticello, Albemarle county, Va., Nov. 19, 1752. At first a surveyor and farmer, on the upper Ohio river, he participated in Dunmore's campaign in 1774. In 1775, he went to Kentucky and became prominent in political affairs. In 1777, as major of militia, he repelled the Indian attacks on Harrodsburg. Being commissioned by Virginia as commander of an expedition to capture the Illinois country from the British, he rendezvoused a party of frontiersmen near Louisville, Ky., in June, 1778. July 4–5, he surprised and coerced Kaskaskia, and soon Cahokia and Vincennes quietly succumbed to his influence. Hamilton, the British governor of Detroit, made an expedition via the Wabash and Maumee and recaptured Vincennes, Dec. 17. But Clark, then at Kaskaskia, heard of this movement and made a force l march, one of the most difficult and heroic on record, and again took Vincennes, Feb. 25, 1779. He was active in repelling British and Indian attacks throughout the remainder of the War of the Revolution. In 1793 he fell into temporary disgrace on account of yielding to French importunities and engaging in a futile revolution in the Southwest. His capture of the Illinois country was big with fortunate political results, being one of the means by which the Northwest was secured to the United States. Died near Louisville, Ky., Feb. 18, 1818.

26. CLARK, SATTERLEE. R. A. Clifford, artist.

Born in Washington, D. C., May 22, 1816; came to Wisconsin in 1828; sutler in the army, 1830-43; served two years in the assembly, and twelve in the senate; presidential elector in 1852; vice president of the State Agricultural Society and of the State Historical Society. Died Sept. 20, 1881.

27. CLINTON, DEWITT. George Catlin, artist [?]

Born in Orange county, N. Y., March 2, 1769; died at Albany, Feb. 11, 1828. This is an original portrait, once having adorned Clinton's own library, and is believed to have been painted by Catlin while Clinton was mayor of New York.

28. CLINTON, EDMUND D. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Vermont, April 19, 1804; settled in Wisconsin in 1836, and was long and successfully engaged in furthering prominent railroad enterprises. Died at Brodhead, Wis., May 7, 1885.

29. COBB, AMASA.

Born in Crawford county, Ill., Sept. 27, 1823; migrated to Wisconsin in 1842; served as a private in the Mexican war; studied law and was district attorney, 1850-54; member of the state senate, 1855-56; adjutant general, 1855-58; member of assembly, 1860-61 — the latter year, speaker; colonel of the 5th Wisconsin, in the War of Secession, retiring from the service with brevet rank of brigadier general; elected four terms a member of congress. He removed to Nebraska, and is an associate justice of the supreme court in that state.

30. COLUMBUS, CHRISTOPHER. Copied by M. Hernandez, from the Yanez portrait.

31. CONOVER, OBADIAH M. James R. Stuart, artist.

Born in Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 8, 1825. Graduated from Princeton college, 1844, and from Princeton Theological seminary, 1849. He removed to Wisconsin in 1850, and was connected with the University of Wisconsin as instructor and professor of ancient languages and literature from 1850 to 1858; was reporter of the supreme court of Wisconsin from 1864 to the time of his death, which occurred at London, England, April 29, 1884. Dr. Conover was connected with the State Historical Society as an officer from its re-organization in 1854.

32. COTHREN, MONTGOMERY M. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Yates county, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1819; settled in 1843, in Wisconsin; in 1847 and 1848, represented Iowa county in the Territorial assembly; served a term of two years in the state senate, in 1849–50; in 1852 was a presidential elector, and the same year chosen a circuit judge and served two terms of six years each; again elected circuit judge in 1876. Died at Mineral Point, Wis., Oct. 26, 1888.

33. CRELIE, JOSEPH. S. D. Coates, artist.

35. CROMWELL, OLIVER. Copied by Mark R. Harrison from Samuel Cooper's portrait, painted about 1650.

"The Protector." Born at Huntingdon, England, April 25, 1599; died Sept. 3, 1658.

36. CROOKS, RAMSAY. E. Saintain, artist.

Born in Greenock, Scotland, Jan. 2, 1787; came to America when aged sixteen, engaging in mercantile affairs, first in Montreal, and in 1805 at St. Louis. He visited Wisconsin in 1806, and subsequently visited most of the western Indian tribes, penetrating to Astoria, on the Pacific coast. Was one of John Jacob Astor's lieutenants in the American Fur Co., at Mackinaw. Died in New York, June 6, 1859.

37. DARLING, MOSES C. Samuel M. Brookes, artist.

Born in Massachusetts in 1801; settled first at Sheboygan Falls, Wis., in 1837, and at Fond du Lac in 1838, of which latter city he was the first mayor; a member of the Territorial legislature from 1839 to 1848, having been speaker of the house in 1846, and president of the council in 1847; a member of congress; and president of the Fox and Wisconsin Improvement Co. Died at Chicago, March 13, 1866.

38. DE SOTO, HERNANDO.

The discoverer of the Mississippi river. He was born in Spain about 1496, and died on the Mississippi, 1542. This is a copy from a portrait in Madrid, which is regarged as authentic.

39. DODGE, HENRY. J. C. Marine, artist.

Born at Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 12, 1782; early settled in Missouri, where he served as sheriff in 1808; commanded an expedition up the Missouri against the hostile Indians, in 1814; in 1827 removed to Wisconsin; took a prominent part in the Winnebago uprising of that year, and in the Black Hawk war in 1832; was first Territorial governor of Wisconsin, 1836-41; delegate in congress, in 1841-45; again Territorial governor, 1845-48; United States senator, 1848-57. Died at Burlington, Iowa, June 19, 1867.

40. DODGE, HENRY. Bowman, artist.

145. WILLIAMS, ELEAZER. George Catlin, artist.

The reputed son of a woman of the St. Regis band of the Mohawk Indians, born about 1792. Became an Episcopal missionary to the Onedias of New York. First came to Wisconsin in 1821 as agent of certain tribes of New York Indians who desired to settle in the valley of the lower Fox. About 1850, he won notoriety by claiming to be the son of the executed Louis XVI. and his queen, Marie Antoinette, and thus heir to the French throne. A popular tradition alleged that the dauphin, then (1792) eight years of age, was at first incarcerated in the tower of the temple in Paris and afterward secretly sent to America, another child being placed in his stead in the tower and allowed to die there and be buried as the dauphin. Williams's claim to be the real dauphin, reared by Indian foster parents, was preposterous, for the signs of his Indian origin were unmistakable and his history well known to many. Nevertheless, he found many who believed his assertions and a commission came to America, from Louis Phillipe, to investigate the matter. Louis Phillipe concluded that Williams was the victim of an innocent delusion, but those who knew the missionary well stamped him as a vulgar imposter. Died at Little Kaukauna, Wis., Aug. 28, 1857. The portrait was painted about 1833.
